FORECASTS FALL OF U. S. JUSTICE

Untermyer Addresses Progressive Conference

ASSAILS G. O. P.

Says Daugherty Hastening Cataclysm

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—A complete breakdown in the administration of justice in the United States is approaching, Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney, declared in a speech to the progressive conference here tonight, in which he caustically attacked Attorney General Daugherty.

Untermyer also assailed the leadership of the republican party as "short sighted reactionaries" and asserted that the progressive movement as embodied in today's conference is "the first hopeful sign" since the government "has been thrown into insolvency liquidation with the trusts, corporations, war and peace profiteers, and other privileged and predatory interests administering its affairs."

Untermyer's address was the principal one delivered at a dinner which closed an all day conference of progressive men and women gathered to discuss the work of the people's legislative service, an organization formed two years ago by progressives in congress.

Blames Daugherty

"I have come to sound a note of warning," said Untermyer, "against what I regard as the complete breakdown in the administration of justice. We are rapidly drifting towards the cataclysm which was predicted when, instead of selecting a great lawyer for attorney general, a man of the most mediocre attainments was named, a man of the measure of the average ward politician, without learning or training as a lawyer and whose life long environment and practical work had been that of a legislative lobbyist and nothing more."

"If, as I insist, the higher test of the efficiency of government is the administration of justice, we have today reached the lowest possible depths of humiliation to which any civilized country has sunk in recent years."

ARE YOU IN ON MELON CUTTING?

Eligibles Asked to Fill Out P. O. Blanks

Those in Port Arthur who are eligible to participate in the melon, estimated at around $50,000 which the government will cut here January 1, and who wish to participate without delay, are invited by Assistant Postmaster Buchanan to call at the local post office and fill out the necessary blanks now, obviating any delay in getting their money.

The melon comes about through the maturity of the 1915 series of War Savings Stamps, due January 1. It is estimated that there are 1,000 owners of stamps in this series here, their holdings ranging from $1 up to considerable amounts. The payment is a part of a payment of millions to be made to the legion of owners of stamps in the series living in various parts of the Southwest.

In order to secure payment without delay, application for exchange of a stamp for Treasury Savings certificate, maturing January 1, 1923 must be made now. If that is done, checks for the amounts due will be mailed on that date.

If the qualifications are delayed, it will be necessary to give ten days notice, and then take a regular turn during the week of the late payment.

60,000 XMAS SEALS ARRIVE

Jefferson County to Receive Part of Proceeds

Launching a campaign to dispose of 60,000 Christmas seals in Port Arthur, the proceeds of the sales to be used for waging the fight on tuberculosis, Port Arthur Red Cross and health officials have issued an appeal that Christmas shoppers purchase as many of these seals as possible, it was announced Saturday.

Of the $2,000 that will be raised, if all of the 60,000 seals are sold here, $3,750 will be used in waging the fight on tuberculosis in Jefferson county, where over 200 cases of the disease have been reported. It was stated. This figure represents 43 per cent of the proceeds, and the remaining 57 per cent, amounting to $2,250, will go to the national anti-tuberculosis organization. It was stated.

The seals have been distributed to local banks, drug stores and the post office, and Mrs. Robert Lathier has been appointed director of the sales. It is C. Kerche, of the Red Cross tuberculosis committee, said yesterday.

3 IN JAIL GET JAG FROM JUG

Bachanalian Revelry Finale to Hectic Week

Reaching through the bars with a stick of wood and dragging to them a part of the stock of confiscated liquor stored in the city hog-cow, three prisoners in the lower regions of the jail drank themselves into a state of intoxication Saturday afternoon, it was reported at police headquarters last night.

The Gain Freedom

Thebachmanian revelry Saturday night marked the grand finale to a hectic week in the annals of the history of Port Arthur's center—a week during which three prisoners escaped, police declared. Jailer W. D. Lyons is "up in the air" over the series of escapes and "lump parties" centering around his domain. Detective Chief Dick Parley declared last night.

Within an hour after he had been committed to jail for failure to pay a $10 fine and costs fine assessed by Judge Ellis in recorder's court Saturday morning, a man gained the name of J. C. Barrett had tied a blanket to bars over a window on the north side of the jail and made his escape. It was through this window that a one-legged sailor, Herbert Taylor, held by local immigration authorities for deportation, escaped little more than a week ago. Taylor forced the bars apart and slid down to the ground on a rubber hose, the police said.

Trusty is Untrusty

Saturday morning 130 Minnie, a negro trusty, was sent to get a piece of hose for Jailer W. D. Lyons, and Minnie has not returned to the jail or any other member of the police force, it was declared at the station Saturday. Another negro prisoner working out a time on the streets escaped Friday afternoon while the gang was working on Lake Shore drive, near Austin avenue. Officer Lyons reported.

A white man committed to the jail escaped from a bunch of prisoners Tuesday morning while being transferred from the second to the first floor of the hog-cow.

GREEK PRINCE IS DISHONORED

Sentenced to Military Degradation, Banishment

DISOBEYED ORDERS

Revolutionist Tribunal Re-trains From Execution

ATHENS, Dec. 2.—Prince Andrew of Greece, brother of the deposed King Constantine, tonight was sentenced to life-long exile and military degradation for having disobeyed orders during the recent war with Turkey when he had a military command.

The verdict came late tonight after Prince Andrew had been on trial all day before a high military tribunal. It was considered that he had a narrow escape from death, as the court might have imposed the extreme penalty on the strength of the evidence introduced.

Dishonored Before Troops

The judgment of military degradation means that he must have his buttons and badges cut off in the presence of a regiment of troops.

Depositions read at the court martial agreed that Andrew had disobeyed orders during the Asia Minor campaign when the Greek were routed by Mustafa Kemal's forces.

The prince was exceedingly nervous when the first questions were fired at him. His replies were choked with emotion as he answered the revolutionary inquisitors.

It was only after sometime that he recovered his sangfroid and was able to answer the court calmly.

Scene Dramatic

With his wife, Princess Alice, watching, and amid the solemnity caused by the knowledge of the terrible fate of the five cabinet ministers who had passed before him, the scene at the court martial was dramatic in the extreme.

The prince was questioned for a very long time, and lengthy depositions were read condemning him. The fact that a death sentence was not imposed is believed due, in part at least, to the force created by the execution of the prince's premier and other officials who were shot with him, and the fact that Andrew is related by marriage to the Mountbattens, a powerful house connected with British royalty.

MACBETH'S WONDERFUL VOICE CAPTIVATES HER AUDIENCE HERE

Silvery Voiced "America's Own" Captures Hearts of Small Audience of Music Lovers From a Drab Strainer "Exposed"

BY MARIE SMITH

To a small but appreciative audience, Friday evening at the Elks theater, Florence Macbeth brought the gift of her silvery voice to Port Arthur.

The fact that a world-famous artist, and particularly one of America's own, had so lockaround a stony stage, devoid of flow, color, flowers, and proper lighting facilities, is an unfavorable reflection on Port Arthur that cannot be disregarded or pardoned.

Ignored Setting. With gracious forbearance, however, Miss Macbeth ignored the crude setting (and empty seats) and sang with interpretation and clearness that struck a responsive chord in the musical soul of her audience.

The quality of her voice was exquisite in "Sam's Hymn" and in the "Norwegian Echo Song," it went downward to a mere whisper of floating melody, "Ho! Mr. Piper," was a vivacious little song that was rendered with crispness of diction and a gleaming fluidity of phrasing.

Effortless Art. The versatility of the artist was astonishing, her tones being equally perfect in rendering the passionate result of the exile and the piquant childish story of the little lover. Her treatment of florid, smooth and effortless, and her tone, warm in quality and capable throughout the scale, did not diminish the mounted the heights and entered into rivalry with the flute. Her rippling trills and dainty staccatos revealed the flexibility of her perfect coloratura. Her encores were delightful little ballads of human interest.

Accompanied by Perfection. Mr. Roberts, pianist, played with artistic understanding that blended with the singer's every mood. His piano solos were endowed with a perfection and technique that delighted the audience. The crispness of his encores and his delicate accentuation of themes were particularly enjoyable.

Own Piano Compositions. Mr. Roberts' composition, "Pierrot," gave a wide range for the play of Macbeth's voice, and was enthusiastically received.

The final encore, "In My Garden," also a product of Mr. Roberts, was an enticing little love song and stood as a tribute to Miss Macbeth's subtle courtesy, giving as it did, Mr. Roberts an honorary place in the concluding burst of applause.

HAVE YOU NOTED KINFOLK? THIS MAY INDICATE CHANCE FOR BEING FAMOUS

SOME EXAMPLES OF INHERITED GENIUS AND PROF. LEWIS M. TERMAN (CENTER), STANFORD UNIVERSITY PSYCHOLOGIST AND GENETICIST. LEFT: ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND HIS SON, ROBERT LINCOLN, FORMER SECRETARY OF WAR AND HEAD OF THE PULLEMAN COMPANY; COLONEL ROOSEVELT AND HIS SON, THEODORE ROOSEVELT, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE NAVY; RIGHT, MRS. HOMER AND HER DAUGHTER, LOUISE HOMER, EQUALLY FAMOUS AS A SINGER; JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL AND, BELOW, DR. A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, PRESIDENT OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

A NATIONAL PROBLEM

Here is the warning of Prof. Lewis M. Terman, one of the outstanding figures in American psychological research and head of the Stanford department of psychology:

"Intellectually superior families are not reproducing as rapidly as in the past. Man's possibility of becoming great or unusual is diminishing rather than increasing in the United States.

"We must look for the production of leaders in science, art, government, education and social welfare, to the highest 25 per cent of our population, and especially to the 4 per cent that stands at the top.

"From this 4 per cent come half our geniuses and great men. We must remember that the average mental age of the population is that of an eighth grade school pupil.

"It is a problem that should be met by the government."

BY GENE COHN
NEA Staff Correspondent
PALO ALTO, CAL., Dec. 2.—

What are your chances of becoming a genius? Or even of becoming great?

Just one in 500 unless you can put your finger on a relative who possesses the "genius cell" of greatness. And the chance of genius cropping out in the United States diminishes each year.

Such is the conclusion of Prof. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University, nationally celebrated psychologist and researcher.

His five and far-reaching work has been engaged in by Prof. Terman over a long period of time. Tests of thousands of children have been made, and intensive study of exceptionally talented children has been an outstanding feature of the work. The genealogies of famous and brilliant men and women have been cleared and investigated.

Out of this exploration into human capacity for genius or unusual ability, Prof. Terman has reached these conclusions:

"Qualities that make an exceptional child and later an exceptional individual are inborn, and not to be acquired. Exceptional children are so by natural endowment. Their unusual abilities are not the result of formal training, in my opinion.

"Although there is no exact knowledge or final proof on this subject, it is my conclusion that special intellectual abilities are inherited in the germ cells or genes—corresponding to human traits.

"Ancestry Has Influence

"So, if your ancestors were great on either side of the family, your chances for mental brilliancy are greatly increased.

"The man of genius is 500 times more likely to have a near relative who is also exceptional than is the average man on the street. Probably the best known cases of inheritance of brilliance are those of the descendants of Jonathan Edwards, famous New England divine, and the Darwin-Galton-Wedgewood families.

"The Jonathan Edwards line turned out 68 more or less celebrated divines, some 20 surgeons and a great number of leading educators.

"Is the Darwin line, the celebrated Charles Robert Darwin, scientific genius, was the son of a celebrated doctor, and grandson of Dr. Erasmus Darwin, both artist and scientist. His brother Erasmus also inherited the gift of the arts. His wife, who was Fanny Wedgewood, also child of a brilliant stock, and another grandfather, Mr. Francis Galton, left a historic record as an anthropologist. From Charles Darwin descended a line of prominent scientific leaders.

Points to Lincoln

"Abraham Lincoln is an example of greatness coming from humble stock," Terman points out. "Lincoln had a genuinely unusual line—one which already had and still is producing notable individuals. The same brilliance shows in the line of James Russell Lowell and a host of others.

"It is the germ cell and nothing that we can do to the individual during life will alter these cells.

"Professor Terman summed up these deductions in the following epigrammatic paragraphs:

"Genius appears more frequently in man than in woman—probably to be accounted for by woman's lack of opportunity or certain weakness of the will to power."

"Half of our genius comes from the top 4 or 5 per cent of the population. And let me warn you man's possibility of becoming unusual is on the downward scale, rather than the increase.

"The average mental age of the

FINDS MOTHER BELIEVED DEAD

Hotel Maid Finds Clue in Talking With Guests

WINNINGTON, Ky., Dec. 2.—A casual conversation with a woman guest in a hotel in Louisville, where Mrs. Helen Gray Henderson, 20 years old, a former resident of Lexington, was employed as a maid, led to the realization a few days ago of a girl's dream—the discovery that her mother, who she had been told, died 12 years ago, is still living and in good health.

Following this revelation, Mrs. Henderson left Louisville Saturday for Madisonville, Ky., and joined her mother, now Mrs. Josephine Halloway, in a happy reunion. She will make her home with her.

Somehow the girl doubted that her mother was dead, and during the years she spent in a Louisville orphanage at the two subsequent years she lived with various families the girl hoped that she would one day find her mother or obtain some information regarding her.

Mrs. Henderson's parents, according to her story, separated when she was 8 years old. She went with her father, who died shortly afterwards, the child being placed by the family physician in a Louisville orphanage. She was informed that her mother also had died. After 16 years spent in the institution, Mrs. Henderson, grown to be an attractive girl of 28, went to live at different times with families in Jackson, Covington, St. Louis and for several months past in Lexington. On leaving her she obtained a position with Mrs. J. E. Brown in Louisville as housekeeper.

Recently, while working at Louisville hotel, the girl was asked by a Mrs. Mosier, what her name was. It developed that Mrs. Mosier's maiden name was Henderson also, and that the woman and the girl were cousins. Together they located the girl's mother.

Girl, 19 Years Old, Sees Her Father For the First Time

BETHANY, Mo., Dec. 2.—Mrs. J. C. Anrell, 19 years old, of Leon, Iowa, has returned to her home after a short visit with her father, A. G. Crane of Bethany, whom she saw this week for the first time.

Twenty years ago Crane was a traveling salesman out of Chicago. He met and married Mrs. Anrell's mother in Bethany, but before their child was born, they had separated and Mrs. Crane remarried and went to Colorado.

The daughter of the former Mrs. Crane was given the name of Ethel Crane. Later the child was sent to relatives in Leon and it was not until she was 12 years old that she was told the right name of her father. A merchant at Leon, Iowa, recently told her her father was in Bethany and she came here to meet him.

EDUCATIONAL PUNCHES MADE BY THE GOVERNOR

"People perish for lack of knowledge" was the theme of Governor Neff when he appeared before the members of the State Teachers' Association. Every sentence contained a punch. Every argument was based upon facts; every conclusion is self-appalling.

The wealth of this country shall educate the children of this country proclaimed even the fathers of the Texas constitution.

Every child in Texas from the poorest to the richest is entitled to a fair education.

It will cost the state more to let the child alone than it will cost to educate it.

With the conviction that the state is primarily responsible for the education of the youth of the land I come on this occasion to this great gathering of teachers.

We are graded in school efficiency thirty-fourth from the top among the states of the Union.

That our system of financial support should be altered and strengthened is clear.

The entire educational life of Texas should be studied to the one high end that the administration in our state may be simplified, unified, harmonized and invigorated from top to bottom.

By an adequate school system is meant: a high grade school teacher in a comfortable, well-equipped school building whether that school building be at the forks of the road or on University hill.

Under the present system only a small percent of rural children ever enter a high school. Our country schools are the colleges for the masses.

We must build up our common schools; this is urgent and imperative.

Our institutions of higher learning should be adequately equipped for the benefit of the fortunate few, but rural schools should be generously supported for the democratic many.

The country child should have a good school as the city youth.

Texas should buy the best school system there is on the market.

It is our everlasting shame that the average boy and girl in Texas does not have an equal educational opportunity with the boys and girls of other states.

No state in the Union is richer in actual and potential wealth. Our property valuation aggregates ten billion dollars.

I am not in favor of buying any kind of a school system for Texas unless the money can be had with which to pay for it.

If we are to have an adequate educational system in Texas provision must be made for its support.

Let us tap new sources of revenue. Wealth escaping taxation can be seen on every hand.

We are now and have been for some years producing ten million barrels of oil a month in Texas. That will aggregate in a year a hundred and eighty million dollars worth of oil. Ought not the state at least as a minimum get 5 per cent of this stream of gold flowing out of Texas.

The people of Texas are spending annually for amusement thirty million dollars; for chewing gum two million dollars.

Let us get the money where it is and spend it on the children where they are.

Texas cannot have an adequate educational system without paying for it. It will cost money.

California spends $60 per elementary child, $80 per high school child and $100 per junior college pupil. We are able to do what California does.

Suppose we see if we can buy a good school system for $50 a child. I believe the state should pay half of that and the local units the other $25. We had one million three hundred thousand students, the state spent last year per child to educate it, the sum of approximately $15,000.

This was approximately $10 short per child on the part of the state from the amount necessary to buy for that child an adequate school system.

In this conflict for equal rights for the children of Texas I am ready to leave or follow the vanguard of battle.

The state must recognize education as a vital function of the government.

Invest not less than $20 in every child in the state within the interschool age.

Tap in Texas new sources of revenue in order to get money with which to pay our educational bill.

Make the state the big unit of the educational system with a strong, active, aggressive state board of education as the administrative head.

Take up the slack, stop the leaks and eliminate the waste and duplication in our educational system.

Teach the boys and girls of the state some of the practical things of life.

The words are Neff's. Take them home.

WHAT THEY STAND FOR

Now it is announced that the Lloyd George Liberals and the National Liberals will bury their differences and form a compact working organization. This will give the combination 100 seats in parliament, but it will be the third party and the lesser of the three parties as the British Laborites held 140 seats.

Bonar Law's government is made of die-hards, conservatives and Tories. They represent not the forces of reactionism but the elements of society which speak for property rights before the rights of man. They represent the old order. Both wings of the Liberal party represent the progressive conservatives and the labor party the radicals of England. There is no Irish question now.

Bonar Law and his followers have lived up to the bargain made with Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins, two Celts who gave their lives for Irish freedom and they were sent to early graves by the implacables lead by DeValera and Childers.

A ROCK ROAD

President Harding has thrown the influence of his administration on the side of those who are fighting for the ship subsidy. But the Harding administration has lost prestige. Now republican congressmen from the West have warned the administration that the bill must be amended almost to the death or it will be thrown in the discard.

A loss of 76 congressional seats and 10 senators of the republican party that the subsidy bill has a rocky road to travel.

This government is spending sixty million dollars a year to aid the states in building public highways and those who are backing the subsidy are asking "why shouldn't the government spend fifty million dollars a year to build ocean highways for American ships?"

A SWIFT TRAVELER

A photograph 96 feet long and 10 feet high, one of the largest ever made has been completed by Dr. Frank M. Woodruff, of the Chicago Academy of Sciences of Lincoln Park. It shows a panorama of the lake Michigan shore at Miller Beach. It is tinted in natural colors, is one of four immense panorama photographs which when all are complete will form the backgrounds of exhibits showing the birds, animals, reptiles, trees and flowers, common now or in earlier days in the Chicago region. Man has traveled a million miles since the tail-dip was extinguished by the coal oil lamp and the coal oil lamp put out of business by the electric light.

A FRIGID BLOC

There is a new farm bloc. It is composed of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Watson of Indiana, Nicholson of Colorado, McNary of Oregon, Carrion of Arizona and Keyes of New Hampshire.

These political philanthropists are said to be unanimous in the opinion that legislation to help the farmer must be passed as quickly as possible. They are going to give him rural credit and make it possible for him to borrow money on long time at a low rate of interest from the federal reserve bank.

If John D. Rockefeller were a member of the senate he would become a member of the Lodge Farm Bloc without the batting of an eye. Jones is an individual of some importance since the republicans of the middle west and the north-west became the official guardian of the Townley platform of principle.

Townley, the apostle of the non-partisan party, has been vindicated by the Massachusetts leeborder and the Sunny Jim of Indiana politics. Board the farmer band wagon. They are all doing it now.

THERE IS MONEY IN OIL

There is money in oil if one gets in on the ground floor or is the owner of Standard Oil stock. It is announced that the parent company and its thirteen children voted fat dividends this year of almost a billion dollars.

It only cost the United States twenty-three billion dollars to win the World War that is, if the foreign allies of Uncle Sam pay back the eleven billion dollars advanced to them as war loans.

A billion dollars is a lot of money and the Standard and its thirteen children cut the largest dividend this year in the history of the petroleum industry.

The man who says prosperity isn't here is not the owner of Standard stock.

PAY AS YOU GO

Sir Gilbert Parker, the Canadian novelist on his way home from London, stopped off in New York City where he remarked to a reporter "the United States hadn't decided to forgive debts yet but everybody was willing to give her time." If Sir Gilbert lives to be as old as Methuselah he may live long enough to celebrate the cancellation of war loans by the American government speaking for the American people.

Before the coming of the World War the American people shipped to Europe five hundred million dollars a year interest money. They were borrowers from European money lenders and they paid their interest promptly.

Now the tables are turned. European nations became borrowers from the American government and Americans. They should pay their interest promptly and make ready to pay the principal whenever the principal becomes due.

A GILDED AGE

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania is a republican. He declared that the negro who made history by interrupting debate in the senate was a soldier who had been wounded in the service.

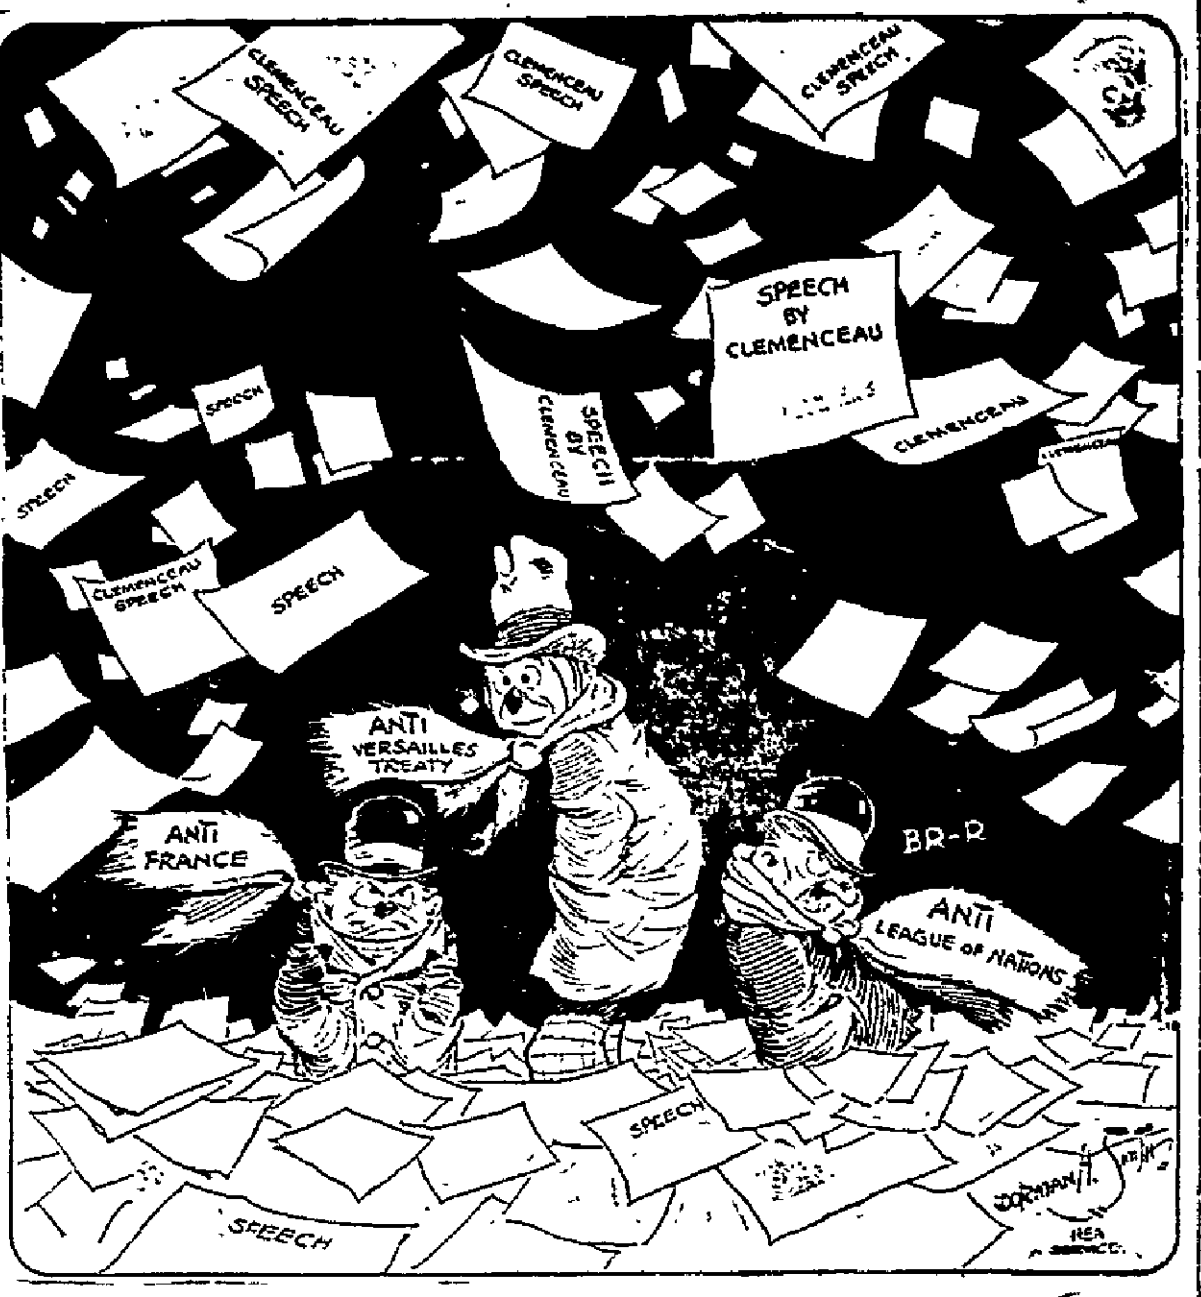

Senator Heflin of Alabama, who is a democrat, said the negro was suffering from trench foot, contracted while he was in training at Camp Funston, Kansas, and that the negro did not go over-sea.

Most anything is likely to happen in the senate since the organization of a new farm bloc by Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts with Senator Ralph Cameron of Arizona as the whip.

Senator Lodge is the ice king, and Senator Cameron is the copper king of the senate. Early in November Senator Lodge was re-elected by a scant 8,000 majority while Arizona went overwhelmingly democratic.

The man with the hoe is having his innings. He is terrorizing the old guarders for the first time in political history.

YOU AND I

PESTS

The deposed sultan of Turkey is plotting to return to his throne, a Constantinople newspaper claims. That is to be expected, naturally. But it is strange to find that a lot of trouble can be stirred up by one man.

The world now has about 1,500 million inhabitants. And they're all along together quite amiable. If it were not for a few thousand professional trouble-makers, the world would be a much more peaceful place.

There are some jobs that, if handled properly, cannot pay too much money. A million a year would be a step too far, but it is a good thing to be paid for the benefit of mankind.

Stormont entered Clutch's quarters, and presently came down stairs again, carrying Clutch's snow-chest and a black bag.

He went himself near Darragh's room. "You will be all right," he said. "I'll be back in a moment."

Stormont began to stow away her effects in the basket pack; Darragh went over to her and took her hand. "You are glad to see me, aren't you?" he said.

He swung a wilded uppercut. It fairly started in the air. It would have hit the big man. If only his chin had been there.

He bowed over down the alley. Hard as he possibly could. It hit the forehead of the player. Now the joint is bleeding freely.

TEXAS' LOSS TO AGGIES SADDEST IN GRID HISTORY

Longhorns and Bears May Play Next Year

Final Standing	W	L	T	Points
Texas	5	3	0	1,000
Aggies	4	2	2	500
Oklahoma	4	2	2	500
Arkansas	4	1	3	500
Rice	5	1	1	500

It may not be said that the conference title between Baylor and Texas A. and M. They were defeated in Austin Thursday, when the Aggies fully recovered from a lame start, defeated Texas University, 14 to 7. This result boosted Baylor into the championship of the Southwestern conference, Baylor having previously stepped upon the Aggies 13 to 7.

This is the first time in a long period that a Baylor team has been crowned as supreme champion of the conference. If their success leads to the scheduling of a Baylor-Texas game for next year a double purpose will have been served. To the casual observer it appears that such a game is a necessity in order that the chances of conflict be lessened. There is plenty of time in a two and a half month season for these teams to meet.

Even had Baylor lost to S. M. U. Thursday the Bears were not to be downed, as they had a 14-0 triumph over the Aztecs.

Many are depressed. Texas University men and graduates will refer to their 1932 defeat as one of the saddest events in football history at Austin. For it was the first time a Texas eleven had lost to its ancient and honorable rival at home since 1915. During this same period Texas has never won at home at College Station. There was a tie played in 1921, but there is nothing conclusive about a tie.

The fact that Texas was never for a single second ahead in its Thursday game goes to show the miracle that Dana X. Bible and his staff had worked with the comparatively green squad that had been rolled up by Howard Parnie, Tulsa University, Baylor and S. M. U.

Baylor's defeat Texas, however, pointed out these Aggie losses and followed by a convincing win over Oklahoma and Oklahoma. Nothing that even remotely hinted at a possible Longhorn overthrow seemed compatible. No student body or team was ever more supremely confident of success. So the defeat was just about the most depressing occurrence that was ever recorded from the Texas Aggie. With the loss of a tie for the title went the sunshining of old-time tradition. As matters stand today it is the Aggie record as hope that stands forth unshaken for seven years.

Second place honors in the conference were fairly well divided between the Aggies and the Longhorns, with Southern Methodist University in third place. Texas won more conference games than the Aggies, but failed at the big moment. S. M. U. lost to Baylor Thursday, 24 to 0, and was also down by Arkansas.

Rice finished far down in the conference race, yet it made a successful stand against Arizona in the final battle. By defeating the Wildcats, 14 to 7, the Rice Owls enjoyed the day as much as did the Aggies. It was these two games that made the men forget what had gone before. In both instances fumbles led up to the scoring of the minority points.

SHOTTEN EXPECTED TO LEAD SYRACUSE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 2.—Another veteran of the major league circuit is expected to pass out of the select circle during the coming winter training season and wear the managerial cap of the minors.

Outfielder Bart Shatten, assistant to Manager Branch Ricker of the Cardinals, is being groomed to lead a minor league club controlled by the St. Louis owners. It is reported that he is to lead the Syracuse team of the International league.

CORPUS CHRISTI PUTS BEAUMONT OUT OF RUNNING

Kennedy's Warriors Beaten by 13-7 Score

BEAUMONT, Dec. 2.—(Outfielder and outfielder, the Beaumont high eleven went down in defeat this afternoon before the attack of the team representing the Corpus Christi high school. The visitors won by a score of 13 to 7 but the team fails to reflect the margin by which Coach Kennedy's warriors were outclassed. As a result of today's game the Corpus Christi eleven now holds the championship of Districts 11, 13, 14 and 16 of the Texas Interscholastic league.

One of the largest crowds that has ever attended a football game in this city saw the champions of this district eliminated from the race for state high school honors. Before the game, local enthusiasts were confident that the Beaumont team would be able to come through the encounter victorious. Three-quarters of the game passed with neither team scoring but with Kennedy's men on the defensive most of the time. As the fourth period began, hopes for a Beaumont victory had largely faded to hopes for a scoreless tie.

The first score of the game came early in the first period, when Dana of the visitors, plotted his way through quarter when a broken field for a touchdown and McCarthy dropped-kicked for point. It was then that Beaumont resorted to passing and their open play resulted in their advancing to the visitors' two-yard line from which point Johnson went over for a touchdown. Ryan booted a goal for the additional point. With the score tied, both teams began a furious fight which was ended when Corpus Christi player intercepted a forward pass and ran 45 yards for a touchdown.

TEXAS LEAGUE TO HAVE EIGHT STRONG TEAMS

Weaker Clubs Strengthen for 1933 Race

With four teams already assured the same strength that they offered in the 1932 campaign, and the other four contenders promising to bolster, the Texas league promises to be anything but a one-club chase. The champion Fort Worth Panthers, the Wichita Falls Spudders, the Dallas Giants and the Houston Buffs, all strong as they were when the chase started last spring, showed up under new management. Galveston, with Pat Newman at the pilot's wheel, Beaumont under new ownership and management, and San Antonio, with a team that was a surprise last year, on account of its failure to climb, all should enter real battle next year.

Fort Worth, the champs, will lose practically nothing and will have some new blood to strengthen up with. The Cats had two weak spots, one at third and the other at short. The Victoria Pheas and the Flashy Tarver did nobly last year, but one has passed the days of usefulness as a regular and the other lacks hitting ability. Hence, Paul LaGrave faces the task of plugging these two places.

The Dallas Giants will have the advantage of starting the season with young men who are known—men who have shown their stuff and proven to be of Class A ability. Also, a new heater will be on hand, though as yet it is not known who the man will be.

Houston Expected. Down at Houston, Hunter Hill will be back to help the Buffaloes get into the race, under the control of the St. Louis Cards. Just what kind of a team the Buffs will have depends on Ricker's generosity, and the Houston fans have a right to expect much, as they saw two wonderful men in Blakes and Knight, the latter obtained from Galveston for the Cards at the cost of three Houston players.

The Spudders at Wichita Falls have already started strengthening for the next race. Alvin Freeman, ex-Cub, dropped into the city the other day and it became known that he's to be a Spudder next year. And Sam has lined up other men, who will add to what he has on hand, make a great team for the Oil City brigade.

The Shreveport team, as Connie Mack's farm should be, is the leader a bit. The Gassers didn't show much class last year, and their chief claim to fame was the development of Homer Lane, who went to the Browns for a good sum of money.

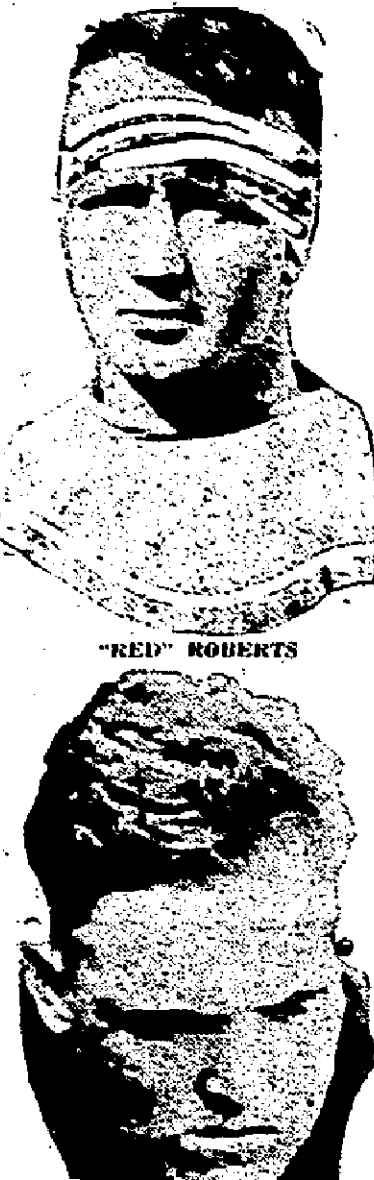

Galveston had one of the best outfits in the circuit at the close of the 1932 chase, and with the new men added will take the field next season favorite to land high. Pat Newman took a club that had floundered without change in the roster, put it in the race. This means something or not, just as you choose to look at it.

Good Team Got Nowhere. San Antonio, as said before, had a great club, but didn't climb. Maybe it was Hub Northing's fault, maybe year.

WESTERN ALL-STARS VANQUISH EASTERNERS

"BO" McHILLIN

"RED" ROBERTS

"BRICK" MUELLER

EDDIE KAW

Irresistible force almost met an immovable body yesterday when two football teams composed of players of past and present day teams and whose names have all been mentioned in All-American football selections clashed at Columbus, Ohio.

West triumphed over East but it was only after one of the most furious gridiron battles ever witnessed. "Brick" Mueller, star of this year's champion California university eleven, blocked a kick of "Red" Roberts, snatched it from the ground and ran 45 yards for a touchdown.

All the players who appeared have completed their intercollegiate competition and journeyed to Columbus at the request of a committee which last year began staging annual clashes between Eastern and Western All-American selections. Proceeds of the game, which drew an enormous crowd, will be donated to charity.

Red Roberts Has Aspiration to Be Wrestling Champ

Red Roberts, the giant fullback and captain of the Centre college football eleven, is thinking seriously of becoming a professional wrestler. Roberts has spoken of his ambition to try the mat game to Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the world's champion, Lewis is a Kentuckian, and knows the Centre football players very well.

"Roberts," says the champion, "might make a good man. He weighs 235 pounds, is very strong, game and has a fair idea of wrestling."

"There is only one thing that may stop him from becoming a great wrestler: That is a twisted bone in his left forearm."

"He broke his arm playing football, and it was apparently set improperly. There is a noticeable bend in it. He, however, claims that it does not bother him at all, and is as strong as his right arm."

"I would like to have Roberts take up wrestling seriously. The advent of college men in the sport will do it a lot of good. If he decides to try the mat game—and I think he will as soon as he leaves Centre—I may take him under my wing for a while until he gets to know the tricks of professional wrestling and can handle himself."

Scared by Others. Crashes Into Tree

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 2.—David Owens, 15, was shot and killed by a rifle in the hands of Ann Kath, 9, while chasing a chipmunk near the Owens' home. The bullet struck the boy in the abdomen when the rifle was discharged as the girl handed it to him.

BOUT PROMOTER PLANS TO STAGE OTHER BATTLES

Mercy Montez to Display His Stuff Here

That Promoter O'Neal intends to continue to stage boxing exhibitions in Port Arthur became known yesterday when he announced that Joe (the rest of San Antonio and Tommy (the rest of Shreveport, who fought eight rounds to a draw here on Thanksgiving day, would appear in bouts which he is planning to present in his arena later in the month.

Mr. O'Neal also announced that Mercy Montez of San Antonio, who has been displaying his wares in Mexico City of late, has asked for a place on a card here, and that the desire of the Alamo city lad would in all probability be gratified. It is the intention of the promoter to match Montez with either Garrett or Howard, probably the latter. In a show to be staged in his arena about December 20.

The enthusiasm which marked the boxing encounters last Thursday night was taken as a sign that the fans of this city are thoroughly appreciative of high grade ring exhibitions and are anxious to see the sport continued. The general feeling seems to be that one good bout deserves another, and Mr. O'Neal declares that only first class bouts will appear in shows conducted by him here in the future.

GRID STARS OF WEST TRIUMPH OVER THE EAST

"Brick" Mueller Scores Only Touchdown of Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 2.—West triumphed over East 6 to 0, in the annual "grid game" here today. "Brick" Mueller, all American football star of California, blocked the place kick of Red Roberts, Centre college star, snatched the puck and dashed 70 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

Kick after kick failed to make any headway against the western stars. The western goal was endangered. That was when the famous Thurman of Penn State succeeded in working the ball down to the one yard line. Then he fumbled, "Bo" McMillin recovered and punted out to 25.

PRINCETON TO LOSE HEAVILY

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 2.—While the Princeton student body is celebrating the victories over Chicago, Harvard and Yale, Coach Bill Roper has already started to think about the 1923 campaign.

The Tigers will lose a dozen members of the varsity football squad. That is quite a blow since most of them are regulars. Of the men who will graduate in June are Captain Dickinson, Thompson, Gray, Baker, Stinson, Alford, Gaines, Griffin, Ewens, Cleaves, Snyder and Troup.

However, Roper isn't doing any worrying. He has the nucleus for another great team in Treat, one of the best tackles of the year, Gorman, Cram, Newby, Beattie, Caldwell, Smith, Suirely, Wingate, Dinsmore and a host of others. In addition, the freshman material is said to be very promising.

Official Averages of National League Show Numerous New Marks

The National League Official Batting Records, issued today, show that numerous new records were established in the senior organization during the past season, which, together with other interesting data, are summarized as follows:

Hornsby led a glorious triumph for the right-hand battery by the wonderful record that he made for the National League and for his own St. Louis team in the season of 1922.

For the third year in succession he was at the head of the league in batting, with an average of .401, that percentage is the highest attained by any batter since 1890, when Ed Delahanty, "Del, the Mighty," finished on top in the National League with a percentage of .408.

In addition to winning the batting championship of the league, Hornsby won the home run championship of the season and also of the league by making 42 home runs during the regular schedule of games. The former championship in home run batting in the National League had been held by Williamson of the Chicago, who batted 27 home runs in 1921.

Continuing in the variety of his record-breaking attack Hornsby made 224 hits in 1922, which is better than the record for hits which was made by Willie Keeler in 1897. Keeler's total was 243. For the many years in which the Keeler record had stood in the National League, it frequently had been asserted that no player would be likely to surpass it unless a left-hand batter, Hornsby did, and he is a right hand batter. Of the 224 hits which Hornsby made, 115 were singles, 46 two-baggers, 14 three-baggers and 42 home runs. His total bases were 450, which surpassed his own record of a total of 378 the previous year.

Walter Holline of Philadelphia batted four home runs in two successive games. Three of them were made on September 15 and the fourth on the next day. This had been accomplished three times previously in the National League; James O'Rourke did it for Boston in 1880, Roger Connor for New York in 1888, and Napoleon Lajoie for Philadelphia in 1900. When Holline made his three home runs September 15 he was the first National League batter to do anything of the kind since the days of Jacob Stockley in 1897.

Youngs of New York and Johnston of Brooklyn tied on one feat. On April 29 Young batted for a single, double, three-bagger and home run, and on May 25 Johnston did the same thing. Young batted for a total of 12 bases in his performance because he made a second two bagger. On September 15 Holline of Philadelphia batted for a total of 12 bases. Carey of Pittsburgh and Coach of the same team each got six hits in one game. This was July 7. Carey went to bat six times and Coach went to bat eight times.

In addition to Hornsby, players who batted home runs with the bases filled were Gowdy, Boston; Kelly, New York; Mann, St. Louis; Wirtz, Chicago, and Fournier, St. Louis. Kelly of New York batted two home runs in one game three times and so did Rossell, Pittsburgh. In his first two times at bat, July 27, Stock, St. Louis, made home runs and batted in six runs.

Maranville of Pittsburgh went to bat 672 times, which is a record for the major leagues. Tolan of the St. Louis Browns had it previously. He went to bat 671 times in 1921. Higbee of Pittsburgh made the most singles, with a total of 106; Hornsby the most two baggers with 46 and Daubert of Cincinnati the most triples, with 22. The leading sacrifice batter was Terry of Chicago, who had a total of 29. Carey of Pittsburgh was the best thief by the 1921 leader, St. Louis, base stealer with a total of 51. He stole four bases July 28. The last National League player to do anything of that nature was John Smith, St. Louis, who stole five in 1910.

On August 25 there was a record game between Chicago and Philadelphia, the former winning by 26 to 23. Chicago scored 16 runs in the second inning and 14 runs in the fourth

MOGULS GATHER FOR MEET WITH FIGHT EXPECTED

Pow-Wow Will Probably Center on Draft

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 2.—Louisville today was under the sign of the Diamond.

The advance guard of baseball clubs were here for the meeting of a week's powwow and council house meetings destined, according to all venue indications, to furnish an abundance of fuel for the hot stove league.

Naturally the major league owners want to get the pick of the minors for $75,000 at the close of each season and obviously the little fellows want to get $175,000 if their product is high class.

That is the whole argument in the draft.

The Pacific Coast League, the American association and the International league have been able to defeat all the moves made by the majors to force them to agree to a modified form of the draft.

As far as the Pacific Coast league is concerned it already has voted against any restoration of the draft. In the past two years, the coast leagues have been paid close to a half million dollars for players and they want to continue having an open National League was made by Chicago and Louisville, June 20, 1897, when Chicago scored 30 runs and Louisville seven. Chicago scored in every inning in that game and each of the Chicago players scored one or more runs and at Cincinnati the most triples, with 22.

Pittsburgh led in club batting, with a percentage of .398, the same total as the 1921 leader, St. Louis, base stealer with a total of 51. He stole four bases July 28. The last National League player to do anything of that nature was John Smith, St. Louis, who stole five in 1910.

On August 25 there was a record game between Chicago and Philadelphia, the former winning by 26 to 23. Chicago scored 16 runs in the second inning and 14 runs in the fourth market for their players.

The American association is not so vitally interested, except in the moral effect that it might have in holding up the prestige of the minors. The association hasn't been developing players for several years.

Since Jack Dunn has agreed to and has started breaking up his powerful Baltimore club, the International league may not desert the ranks of the anti-draft, as was threatened last summer.

Johnnie, After Landis

Unless Commissioner Landis has developed plans for an amicable settlement of the controversy, a major minor war may develop at the meeting.

Charley Ebbets, the owner of the Brooklyn club, who would like to have the draft price reduced to $7500 instead of $7500, wanted the majors to boycott the minors last year, but it was feared that some of the managers feared they would have to classify Ebbets' team as one of the minors and they wanted to retain his friendship.

Shan Johnson, the American league president, has been doing a lot of talking in the west about baseball, that he is going to throw, etc. Perhaps he has a piece of H. E. that will blast the minors out of their den.

The American league boss is said to be suffering from the wound sustained when Comiskey-Landis had the audacity to hold up the horse for the tie game of the world's series and dispose of it without saying a word to him or John Heydler, the National league prey.

Nothing to Do, She Goes to Jail Rather Than Pay a Fine

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Bridie M. Case, daughter of a wealthy ranchman, is passing fifteen days in jail for speeding in her automobile. She is not there because she had to go, but because the wealthy young woman preferred the sentence to paying $25,000.

"I think I will go to jail," she told the court. "I have absolutely nothing to do, nothing to occupy my time, you know; and I have always wanted the chance to get acquainted with Clara Phillips and Madeline O'Rourke."

HEAD COACH OF LONGHORN TEAM RESIGNS PLACE

Criticism of Turkey Day Defeat Is Reason

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—Jerry Whitaker, football coach at the University of Texas, sent his resignation to the athletic council of the University late today.

Whitaker said criticism of the defeat the University suffered at the hands of the Texas Aggies precipitated his action.

"There isn't any question about the council accepting my resignation—I'm through, that's all," he declared. The council is to consider the resignation at a meeting Monday night.

THUMBS DOWN FOR WILLARD

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Joe Willard, seeking to recover the crown that Dempsey looked, asked the public to judge, after a few months' training, whether he deserved another chance at his conqueror.

The public has judged—that part to which we had appealed, at least. The occasion was his first arena exhibition, in the Hollywood stadium of the American Legion, a few nights ago when he boxed a charity bout.

And the verdict was a good natured thumbs down.

A pitiable man, gambling with arms and pathetic yearning for the glory of yesterday, plodding the long, long trail to fighting fitness, but failing to show comeback requisite of championship.

So managers and sport writers saw and estimated Willard in action against his starring adversaries, Tom Kennedy and Joe Bonns.

Said a veteran sporting editor, friend of the big Kansan: "Any promoter who matches Joe with Dempsey ought to be hanged—it would be a crime."

COMISKEY WILL REBUILD TEAM

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Charles A. Comiskey is out to rebuild his American League White Sox to the championship club they were in 1919 when some of them became Black Sox.

After creating considerable baseball furor by paying $100,000 for a single player, Willie Kamm of the Pacific Coast League, the Old Roman is now planning to strip off a few more seals from his roll, and his representatives will attend en masse the minor league meeting at Louisville next week.

Treasurer Louis Comiskey of the club, Secretary Harry Grabner, business manager, Louis Barbour, road secretary and Norrie O'Neill, will escort the Comiskes war chest to Kentucky, and see how many of the little league criers can be corralled to the Comiskey standards to take the Texas training trip with the club in the spring.

Meanwhile some of the Sox infielders are visioning possibilities of other dealings with minor league managers in the more or less near future.

The only reason any man can have for not living in his own home is because he has not the money for building.

The Necessary Amount of Money Is Waiting for You

The money is here—just the last obstacle between you and your home is removed.

Our plan is the most economical for you to follow:—our plan has made scores of couples happy—our plan has built up a great part of Port Arthur, ask your neighbor about our plan, better still come here and we will show you just how easy it is to live under your own roof—enjoying your own home, while paying for it on rent like terms that decrease every month and finally dwindle down to nothing—and the home is yours—YOURS to live in without paying a cent or rent to anyone—YOURS to sell if you wish and get the cash in one large amount.

We have removed the only reason you have for not building a home of your own the way you want it built.

At the present time you do not have to wait—the money is ready—waiting.

THEIR names are Wear, Warp, and Rot.

They steal, they mar, they bend, they break. They leave behind them a trail of ugliness and ruin. Fire does far less damage than they.

At a hundred places in your home where there are bare, or poorly painted surfaces, these vandals are robbing you night and day.

Stop their destructiveness! Shield your property! Protect your walls, floors and furniture with paint and varnish products. As long as the paint and varnish coating is sound, Wear, Warp, and Rot are powerless.

1922 POOR YEAR FOR CHAMPIONS IN BOXING GAME

Crowns Have Been Lifted From Many Domes

When Mike O'Driscoll defeated the New York middleweight champion, Harry Greb, on Sunday night in New York, he was only playing another act of "blow off the champions" which has been a regular part of the boxing game since the days of the prize ring. Champions have been lifted from many domes in the past and they have been lifted again in the present.

Bill Johnson, the double champion, who was never considered such a great fighter, was defeated by Frankie Mason at Frank, Texas. Two years ago, Johnson was first to go down in the championship fight with George Ziegler, but Johnson's manager, John, took away Johnson's title, and then Frankie Mason, the Philadelphian, defeated him in the flyweight division.

Taney Delivered
Gene Taney, light heavyweight champion, was a new man in the ring. He was a new man in the ring. He was a new man in the ring. He was a new man in the ring.

Care, Gets His
The next title-holder in the world was George Carver, world light heavyweight champion. The Frenchman was scheduled for the fight here in the recent performance at Paris, but he was not there. He was a better boxer than he was a fighter.

Heaven Is Next
Jack Britton was the next champion to go. Mickey Walker, a tough fighter from Philadelphia, J. J. rushed the fight. He was a tough fighter from Philadelphia. He was a tough fighter from Philadelphia.

Henry Was Jaded
Wilson probably was the next title-holder. He was a tough fighter. He was a tough fighter. He was a tough fighter.

Keltane, like Dempsey, has set the price high. But there are a lot of fellows who are waiting for a smash at him. He is a tough fighter. He is a tough fighter.

MANY CLOUDS BUT LITTLE RAIN

Highest Temperature for November 81 Degrees

With more clouds for less rain than in any month this year, and with a high temperature of 81, recorded on November 2, only one point below the highest temperature ever recorded here for the month, in 1919, November weather was far out of the ordinary. Examination of the records as furnished by Ernest Carson, in charge of the local weather office.

The percentage of sunshine, 41 per cent, was the least of any month this year except January, when it rained on 25 days, and when the month showed an unusually heavy rainfall. The total rainfall of the month, 1.75 inches, was a normal for November of 2.05 on a weight year basis, and is the least for any month in 1922 except April—in literature the month of showers, but in Port Arthur this year quite otherwise, and a month of sunshine. November this year showed only one shower, against an average of three.

Clear Days
There were only eight clear days in the month, and only four more than in any month this year. The remaining 22 days were cloudy, the remaining 12 being rainy.

As the high temperature of the month, 81, was near the record for the local station, the low temperature, 41, recorded on the morning of November 2, marked the low record for this year.

Mean pressure for the month was 30.10, with a maximum high of 30.25 on November 22 and a maximum low of 29.84 on November 23, immediately following the "coldest" day of the year to date.

Sound Warmest Record
November's position as the second warmest ever recorded here, indicated by the second highest temperature on any November record, is also indicated by the mean temperature of 61 for the month—exceeded only by November in one year in the office. The mean high temperature was 70.9, and the mean minimum temperature was 51.1.

Stiffening of the breeze, which came with the fall of the year, was indicated by the increase of total wind mileage to 6664, an increase over the 6000 miles recorded in the year. The average wind for the month was 12.5 miles an hour, or 12.5 miles an hour, or 12.5 miles an hour.

BALEMORE, Md., Dec. 2.—The new Christie tank, said to be the fastest tank ever invented for army use, has been tested and demonstrated at Camp Mead. The tank is of low construction, being only 18 inches high, and is said to be difficult to detect at even short distances. It is a combination of the wheel and caterpillar type of tractor.

The tank carries an armament of one 6-pounder and three machine guns, with a crew of four men. It is adapted to both road and cross-country travel, and weighs fifteen tons.

ROW OF COTTON 75 MILES LONG

Hands Complain There's No Place to Stop

CROWELL, Dec. 2.—John I. Hunter, who owns a large farm north of here, just has finished picking the 75-mile row of cotton in the world. It has a length of 75 miles. The row was planted in circular form. Hunter is the first big circular row around 2 1/2 miles field. With the first row he had not yet finished picking. He had not yet finished picking. He had not yet finished picking.

"There's no place to stop," was the common complaint. Hunter believes the circular row of planting cotton or other crops has a considerable advantage over the straight row. "In a 2 1/2 mile field a circular row is a lot more than a straight row. It is a lot more than a straight row. It is a lot more than a straight row."

Beutner died unexpectedly in a hospital at Springfield, Mo., which he had entered for a minor operation on a visit to a brother, Dr. Howell Beutner. Before he left home he scribbled his will on the leaves of an ordinary writing tablet.

And Pioneers Once Hunted
Snipes in Marshland
Where Franklin School
Stands—Story of an Old
Wheeze Forever New

Many a Port Arthur pioneer will recall the days when there was good jacksnapping where the Franklin school now stands, and if one got there early a generous lot of teal was not infrequent. Instead of twenty-eight hundred pupils, as now obtains, on those grounds, one might have counted that many white brant flying over in a single hour before sunrise—as many white brant, emitting almost as much clamor as the children at recess.

Well Worn Joke Still New
However, what is wished to present here is a well-worn joke that was born at the same time. Port Arthur was called; a tremendous attempt at wit was half-sold, revamped and sewed up anew for every newcomer who came to town and wished to buy a lot. Viewed from the angle of present developments the alleged witicism was very punk and sorry, but those who sprung it were building better than they knew, for under the conditions which trapping is now being operated it was not so Utopian to spring on a newcomer the statement that if he bought a lot out on Twelfth street it would be possible for him to pay for the land in five years time with the muskrats he could catch off of it.

A Funny Wheeze
The wheeze was tremendously funny then, for that was before there was any other natural drainage in Port Arthur; before there was a storm levee, before there were great pumps at Gilliam Circle lifting the water out of town as fast as it fell, and really there were muskrats on Twelfth street, for that was out in the marsh then, and it was not customary in those days for men to kiss their wives goodbye when going after jacksnipe.

are no longer a man's land for trappers; trapping has been commercialized, and the land is posted against trappers as it has been for many years posted against hunters. Landowners nowadays lease out the fur-privilege in large acreages, which is sub-leased by the furbers to individual trappers on a percentage basis. This "lay" ranges from one-fourth to one-third of the catch, and two muskrat skins, or twelve muskrat skins at present prices if taken on an acre of land have greater value than the land on which the pelts were taken—for this land is always wet and suitable only for winter grazing.

The Wheeze Comes True
Fur farming is a complex industry along the northern coast of the Gulf of Mexico, ranging from Ugh Island eastward as far as there is marsh land. It is reasonable to believe that these fur reservations will be re-stocked with other—that fur-bearer having been completely trapped out of the gulf coast section. Once they were plentiful, a skin would probably be worth $20.

Muskrat 'King of Beasts'
The despised muskrat of 1900, then not considered worth skinning, is today almost king of beasts—a new element in fashion gave this aquatic rodent the vogue, and so well established, and so highly prized has "Hudson seal" garments become that it is not unreasonable to claim that any respectable young man in Port Arthur with $25,000 in Liberty bonds, and who makes it known by concealed inquiries that he intends to buy his bride a $200 Hudson seal overcoat, can't, that is he can marry any young woman he wants to.

Land 'Farmed' Today
All this is related here to appraise readers of The News that the marshes in 1910.

RIVAL KILLED, ACCUSE SUITOR

Kentuckian Shot Down in Open Yard

LOUISA, Ky., Dec. 2.—In some places, rivalry for a girl's hand is out of their differences; in others, one kills the other but gives his enemy a chance; in still others, the rival is "just killed."

Elbert Caldwell has been placed in the Lawrence County jail on the charge of killing L. B. Williams, reputed rival of Caldwell for the favor of a young mountain girl. Caldwell was found hiding under the eaves of his father's home. Posses had searched for him two days, and it is stated in reports from that section that feeling was high.

The alleged murder took place in the yard of a church, where a large congregation of mountain people had gathered, the girl with whom both men were reputed to be in love being present. The minister was preaching when it is claimed, Caldwell approached Williams and told him he had just had trouble with another man. Williams replied that was none of his affair. Caldwell is then said to have replied, "You fellows from Calico Creek try to run everything." He then kicked Williams.

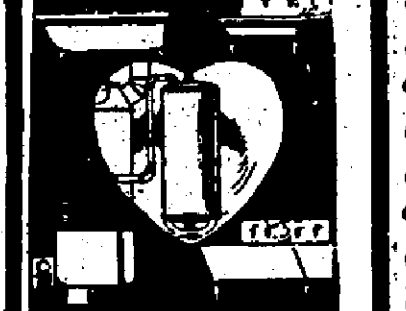

Williams then told Caldwell, the report says, that he did not want any trouble, but that he was not afraid. Caldwell, it is alleged, drew a pistol and shot Williams dead. Constable Parker was standing near and Caldwell turned to Parker asking him if he had ever run. Parker said he had not, so Caldwell informed him that it was "a good time for you to run." Parker was unarmed, and Caldwell escaped into the mountain country. Williams, it is said, had gone to the church service to see the girl. Officers went to the home of Caldwell's father. The place had been ransacked and the officers were about to leave when one of them suggested looking under the house. There the fugitive was found.

NUMEROUS SOCIAL EVENTS TO FILL SOCIAL CALENDAR DURING XMAS HOLIDAYS

AS the days shorten, the social calendar lengthens, and the coming week promises many events of pleasant sort. During the past week society began to bestir itself and many delightful Thanksgiving affairs were given, including charming dances, bridges and luncheons.

Numerous events fill the social calendar for the month of December, none, however, which will surpass those which have been given during the Thanksgiving season. Several large parties were given the past week, with both the older and the younger motifs and matrons on the guest list. However, there were also smaller affairs just as elaborate in appointment, but affairs which included only the younger maids and matrons.

As the holidays approach, thoughts of the hostesses are turning to Christmas entertainments and ideas. The holiday motif was used on numerous occasions the past week in the various entertainments in addition to the Thanksgiving motif which received recognition at many charming hostesships.

THE NOVELTY MOTIF featured at the Plaza yesterday when Mrs. Pat Frost and Mrs. George West entertained at a bridge-luncheon in honor of Mrs. Robert's niece, Mrs. Richard C. Allen, a charming bride of November, was unusually distinctive and attractive.

Guests arriving were ushered into the large dining room, where wood-paneled walls, and high and arched ceilings, and the red-carpeted floor, created the Christmas season motif, transforming the large room into a beautiful scene. The lights were shaded, and here and there holly and red and green boughs were incandescent, added to the charm.

Luncheon table appointments featured the favored theme, lovely crystal chandeliers, holding red berries, holly, and topped with holly leaves of green and red tulle, forming the centerpiece for each table. A three-course luncheon was served.

In the games which followed the luncheon, the scores were tallied. Features of the holiday motif were being tallied with red satin bows and showing faint traces of holly leaves. Small green parrots attached to each score card further featured the color scheme.

At the close of the games the prizes for success, dining pieces of holly, were awarded, with Mrs. Herbert Henderson scoring high and Mrs. C. C. Harrell second. Congratulations fell to Mrs. W. D. Woods, and Mrs. Allen was presented with a handsome gift as a special souvenir from her hostesses.

Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Allen also presented Mrs. Westbrooke with a lovely gift, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The charming costumes worn by the hostesses and their guests made a scene of unusual charm. Mrs. Allen wore a handsome gown of white satin, and Mrs. Westbrooke was at-

WEDDING GROOM IS PAROLED AGAIN

Broke Liberty by Wedding Warden's Daughter

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 2.—The interrupted honeymoon of Elmer E. Coddin, paroled inmate of the state penitentiary at Lansing, and Miss Marie Coddin, daughter of former Governor J. K. Coddin, has been resumed after a year's delay.

The couple is traveling through Oklahoma and Texas, according to word here.

The daughter of the former warden and her convict chauffeur were secretly married at Muskogee, Oklahoma, in August, 1921, after a prolonged courtship following Elmer's release from prison from Arkansas City for the theft of jewelry valued at $10,000.

News of the marriage did not become public until Elmer was arrested in Tulsa, Oklahoma, while working for his brother-in-law and charged with the theft of an automobile in Kansas City. He was returned to the penitentiary and his bride stood with relatives in Topeka. She made numerous attempts to secure a rehearing of her husband's parole, which was broken when he married without consent of state officials.

The new marriage saved him from serving a minimum sentence, which would not have expired for four years.

Alleged Principals In Death Mystery Exchange Denials

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Alfred Becker, and Benjamin Barker, a neighborhood garage keeper, today accused each other of slaying Becker's wife, whose body was found buried in a vacant lot near Barker's garage. She has been missing several months.

Becker, after denying the identity of the body, finally admitted it was that of his wife and accused Barker of slaying her to "satisfy" an automobile repair bill, police announced.

Norfolk admitted furnishing the shovel to bury Mrs. Becker, but denied any part in the woman's death. Barker several months ago issued threats to kill her.

Becker, in answering Barker, declared he did not tell of the slaying because he was "afraid of the garage man."

Police today continued to grill Becker.

Police claim that Becker, at the time of his wife's death, had been living with another woman and was the father of the latter's child. Becker is a chauffeur.

Steel wires, laid out by cables on four sides of a frame on which a plane can descend and be stopped in a short distance, is a new airplane landing device to be used on ships.

Barber II was an enemy of Barker, and issued a proclamation against it.

WILSON—A SUCCESS OR A FAILURE?

By MILTON BRONNER

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Was Woodrow Wilson one of the greatest failures of history—or one of the greatest successes?

If a failure—was it due to circumstances he couldn't control? Should he not be named, nevertheless, among the few notable men of history?

An Englishman, Laurence Housman, poet, dramatist and novelist, undertakes to answer these questions in his book, "Deeds and Dreams," already published in London and soon to be issued in America.

The book contains imaginary portraits of famous men done in dialogue, and the picture Housman paints of Wilson out of words he places in the former president's mouth seems likely to make the silent man at Washington the center of a heated discussion.

Here is a picture—an imaginary dialogue between Wilson and his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty, immediately after President Harding's inauguration, March 4, 1921:

WILSON: Tumulty, I've failed. TUMULTY (extenuatingly): In a way, yes. For a time.

WILSON: Absolutely. TUMULTY: I don't agree. WILSON: Because you don't know. My case was so strange—and I had such faith in it. . . .

WILSON (continuing): I had the faith in me; but I failed. I was a voice crying into the void—a possible without a people to back me; a director—of work. The heart of my people lay before me. . . .

WILSON (continuing): I had the faith in me; but I failed. I was a voice crying into the void—a possible without a people to back me; a director—of work. The heart of my people lay before me. . . .

HOVERING PLANE PROVEN EAGLE

Bird's Talons Sunk in Dog as Gotham Stares

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Pedestrians in Riverside park paused to watch what seemed an extraordinarily small airplane. It was sharply silhouetted against the clouds at a height of 1,500 feet or so and the astonishment of the observers grew as the "machine" apparently hovered, a thing that airplanes can't do yet.

A woman in an apartment got a pair of field glasses. What she saw led her to turn to a telescope and then she had revealed to her a most unusual spectacle.

The "airplane" was in reality an eagle, riding leisurely on the still northwest breeze and bearing in its talons a terrier. Whether it was a small Airedale or an Irish terrier the woman could not be sure, but it was plainly a dog, and as she watched she could see the great bird strike with its beak at the eyes of its prey or at the base of its skull.

GLAND ROBBERS GIVEN $100,000

Aged Millionaire Behind Chicago Theft. Is Claim

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—An amateur detective, identified only as "The South from Wisconsin," gave Chief Michael Hughes of the detective bureau a third Thursday night by relating to him the alleged details of a $100,000 gland robbery.

Chief Hughes took the story seriously and said that his men would check on his story on the theory that it might throw light upon the case of Joseph Weznak, who was found on the night of October 12 still suffering from a surgical operation that had cost him his glands.

The story the sleuth volunteered to Chief Hughes was that six weeks ago an aged North Shore millionaire about to marry a 25-year-old bride, had offered $100,000 for new glands. This surgeon, he said, hired kidnappers, who found a victim whom they conveyed to a North Shore hospital, where he was kept under opiates for three days, during which two operations were performed.
